THE INAUGURAL BALL SUPPER.

Twenty-one competitors for the privilege of providing for the jubilant republicans besieged the inaugural committee with every manner of influence. New York had half a dozen applicants; three of the most active were from Baltimore, and Washington, Cincinnati and Chicago each had one or more bid-that the coming ball will be the largest ever given. It has directed Mr. Essner to prepare to serve at least 10,000 peo-Fully 6,000 were taken care of at the last ball, but the fact that it was given on Saturday night, with the rule closing the ball at midnight, kept down the attendance considerably. In order to be ready for any contingency, Mr. Essner yesterday contracted with dealers in Baltimore for his terrapiu. He has practically cornered the market for diamond-backs for the inaugural week in the two cities. At least 300 gallons of dressed terrapin will be required for the ball.

This is the menu as approved by the committee: Raw oysrers in ice, con-summe in cups, broiled oysters, oys-ters a la poulette, chicken cutlets, sweethread patties, terrapin, chicken salad, lobster salad, crab salad, tongue, Smithfield ham, game pate, boned tur-key, pate de toie gras, assorted sandwiches, lemon ices, Roman punch, vanilla and chocolate ice cream, fruit, assorted cakes, coffee.

There will be 300 gallons of consumme, 8,000 chicken cutlets, 7,000 sweetbread patries, 300 gallons of chicken salad, 200 gallons of chicken salad, 200 gallons of consumer, 250 smithfield hams, 200 pates the first parts 150 boned turkers, 10,000 de foie gras, 180 boned turkeys, 10,000 assorted sandwiches, 1,800 quarts of ice cream, 250 pounds of assorted cakes
